

Brennan-Croft-Janet-20050309090003

To: Julie L. Sigall
Associate Register for Policy & International Affairs

Date: 03/09/2005

From: Janet Brennan Croft

Comment:

Why don't we do it the way they do in Canada? Canadians can obtain an "unlocatable copyright owner" license which allows them to use an orphan work for five years (<http://www.cb-cda.gc.ca/unlocatable/index-e.html>). At least that way these items could be used, rather than languishing in no-man's land!