

Re: 22. Proposed Class 21: Vehicle software – diagnosis, repair, or modification

The ability to circumvent any TPM "protecting" the function of a motorized vehicle, for the purpose of researching the security or safety of such vehicles should be an inherent right of any person or organization owning such vehicles.

This right should be codified by the inclusion of this proposed exemption as an approved exemption to the existing DMC.

Thank you.